

INTRODUCTION.....
Luiz Oosterbeek, Laurent Caron, Laurent Caron

VOL. 1. _ SECTION 1 _ CHAPTERS

Encrypting and decrypting territories: training, education and communication within landscapes, Luiz Oosterbeek.....

Interaction of Communication and Education: Road map for Sustainability of inclusive Knowledge Societies, Renaldas Gudauskas, Saulė Jokubauskienė

Cultural Dimensions and Politics under Globalized Conditions: Traditionalist orthodoxies vs. constructivist perspectives, Benno Werlen

The challenges to form teachers in the lifelong learning era, Ingeleore Scheunemann, Livia Scheunemann

The Regional Action Centre of Mação/Coimbra (Portugal) of the international year of global understading: activities and achievements, Helena Henriques

Education, training and communication in cultural, Margalit Berriet

Philosophy for children: why?, Renata Sequeira

Never too old to move: the elderly and the city, António Carvalho

Imaginer le patrimoine européen, Michel Depeyre

Zoo in the 21st century - a conscious relationship with nature and the environment, Ivo Boháč

Non-school learning throughout life in Mação, Sara Cura, Vanda Serra, Rosário Whanon

Education - From Schools to Museums and Galleries, Helena Zemánková

L'art rupestre préhistorique dans la bande dessinée comme ressource didactique: le rôle de l'œuvre graphique d'Éric Le Brun, Isabelle Moreels, José Julio García Arranz

Indigenous making History: The Indigenous ETP at UFSM - Federal University of Santa Maria, André Soares

The contribution of collaborative research and heritage education on the recollection of memory and reinforcement of identity in an indigenous village: reflections of an experience in the western region of São Paulo State (Brazil), Neide Barroca Faccio, Luís Antonio Barone

Language Education Policy and English in Multilingual Countries, Pam Peters, Kate Burridge	207
The transmission and related perception of the message(s) as a main component in valuing, preserving and using the Cultural Heritage remains in the framework of the Quality Management of Cultural Heritage: the Outstanding Universal Value and the European Heritage Label in the context of present challenges, Maurizio Quagliuolo	217
Approaching the management's strategy of a site in the UNESCO World Heritage List: the case of the Convent of Christ in Tomar (Portugal), Gaia Marnetto	221
Education, training and communication: approaches to environmental public policies in Brazil, Roberto Messias Franco	231
Tourist guide book: Historical content communication, the case of Condeixa, Laurent Caron	245
Non-Formal And Informal Education Through Spanish Archaeological Museums, Cristina Eugenia Íscar Gamero	251

VOL. 2. _ SECTION 2 _ PAPERS

PART A. _ Learning to Change

Geographies of Education for Sustainable Development: Conceptions of space in the UN-Decade 2005-2014, Christiane Büttner, Katja Wilner
The Sustainability Discourse in the UN Decade of Education for Sustainable Development, Martina Wilm-Kiesel
Didactical Implementation of Education for Sustainable Development – An Analysis of the Final Report of the UN-Decade of Education for Sustainable Development, Rodica Siminiuc
Individual Consumption in the UN-Decade of Education for Sustainable Development, Johann Russnak
The Role of Landscape Transformations in Human Adaptation Strategies Naoki Goto – Théorie, critiques, enjeux: l'économie fondée sur la connaissance dans le cas de Mação, Portugal, Andrej Machkovski, Eleonora Gargani, Mohammad Sepehr Akhavan Kharazian
Approche participative de la gestion du patrimoine culturel: le patrimoine culturel comme facteur d'insertion socio-professionnelle des jeunes en situation d'exclusion, Songre Pegdvende Estelle
The role of the Public Archaeology as a part of the Landscape Management, Maria Cristina Enjuto Crespo
The social role of cultural heritage in the post conflict period in Colombia

Liao Zhixiao – Orient sur Occident, Impact culturel de l'Asie de l'Est en Europe. Les échanges, interculturels de l'histoire ancienne aux tendances culturelles populaires d'aujourd'hui, José Hernández
International knowledge transfer: the case of Russian viticulture, Olga Iakhina

PART B. _ Knowledge Through Sites, Museums and Exhibitions

Promotion of prehistoric archaeological sites: issues and educational potential, Maria Nicoli
Damaged-cultural landscapes by new-cultural landscapes. Transmission of knowledge of three underwater bridges in tagus river, Francisco J. Cambero-Santano
The silver way in Extremadura: A powerful tool for education, professional training and communication, Lourdes Román Aragón
An Educational Aspect of Brno Zoo, Alžběta Kolibažová
An Educational Aspect of Zoological Gardens, Markéta Tučková
Brno – city of industrial heritage Donata Armakauskaitė – Sustainable Partnership Between Museum and Society: Development of Social Capital Through Knowledge and Communication, Karolína Míková
Museum as a center of non-Formal education, Filip Kinnert
Exhibition as an Educational Medium, Kristýna Sirová
Towards sustainable heritage, eco-tourism, the role of the Botswana National Museum and the place of local communities in Botswana, Malebogo Mvimi
Création des marques muséales à l'heure de la mondialisation: le cas du musée du Louvre, Tu Le
Universal Exposition Pavilions as a Reflection of National Identity, Callum Fisher

PART C. _ Communication and Education for Sustainability

Architecture and communicated architecture, history and variables of the architectural project's representation, Carlo Ricci
Artistic Education and Transmission of Knowledge, Enrique Meléndez Galán ..
Interconnectedness and Intertextuality: Rethinking the relevance of literature education in the 21st century, Kimberly Leong

- School education and the creation of identity narratives. Narrative thinking, construction of collective identity, and a discussion of trans-border identity spaces through narratives, Simon Wyrwol
- The importance of intercultural communication in diplomacy and everyday life, Živilė Karevaitė
- Reflections on the Transfer of Knowledge in and Around Wheelchair Culture, Jakub Topor
- Multi-genre music education: a solution for diverse music sustainability?, Suzanne Wedeking
- Traditional knowledge preservation through Ecotourism: a sustainable alternative for local development? Case study: artisanal fishing in Villa del Mar, Argentina, Carolina Clark
- Communication pour le changement social au service d'une gestion intégrée du paysage culturel, Billy Mangole
- Le rôle de la langue dans les questions culturelles, Craker Mathilde
- Indigenous traditional knowledge and the resilience of socio-ecosystems, Heloise Reocreux